WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY DIGITAL REPOSITORY FACULTY/STAFF SUBMISSION FORM

Washington and Lee University ("W&L") requests your permission to place your scholarly work,
[TITLE]
("Work"), in its University Digital Repository, which includes any successor digital repository maintained by the University Library or the Law Library. This allows W&L to promote faculty and staff scholarship by making such works available for research use and other educational purposes. By submitting this signed form, you grant a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual license to W&L to reproduce and distribute your Work in hardcopy and electronic format, and such other present or future medium viewed as appropriate.

Printed materials will be digitized and preserved in the University Digital Repository and made available online via the Internet.

You may, by placing your initials in the space below, restrict access to your Work. If you desire your Work to be freely available via the Internet and its search engines, do not initial any of the following.

Please initial any that apply.

_____ W&L is granted permission to maintain and provide access to my Work in electronic format via the Internet only for members of the W&L community -- students, faculty, staff, and alumni. If this restriction is not selected, then the Work will be freely available via the Internet and its search engines.

_____ The Work is to be made available in hardcopy form only.

FACULTY/STAFF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I represent that I have the right to distribute this Work, in the submitted format, through the University Digital Repository. I also represent that my submission of this Work does not, to the best of my knowledge, infringe upon anyone’s copyright.

I understand the above terms and grant these permissions to W&L. I have indicated below any restrictions I wish to place on use of this Work.

Signed (author): ____________________________________________________

Printed Name (author):

Work title:

Date: _____________________

Questions about the above should be directed to the University Library or the Law School Library, as appropriate.

ACKNOWLEDGED AND RECEIVED

_____________________________________________ this _____ day of _____.

Caroline L. Osborne, Director of the Law Library and Professor of Legal Research

[January 26, 2012]